"Better Never Rests"

Kirby Smart is in his eighth year directing the Bulldogs who are 89-15 in this span including back-to-back national championships in 2021 and 2022. This offseason, Georgia took a deep dive on the New Zealand All Blacks, the world's most successful rugby team, or quite frankly, any sports team in history.

Most Consecutive Weeks At No. 1

Georgia has established an SEC record for Most Consecutive Weeks at No. 1 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. The Bulldogs rank third all-time at 20 weeks, and this is the longest streak in the College Football Playoff era.

Bulldogs Back At Home To Face Surging Missouri

Saturday will mark the 13th all-time meeting with Missouri, and the Bulldogs hold an 11-1 advantage including 3-1 when it's a top 25 matchup. The teams first met in Miami at the 1960 Orange Bowl where No. 6 Georgia posted a 14-0 victory over No. 18 Missouri. The teams have squared off every year since 2012 when the Tigers joined the SEC. Georgia has won nine in a row in the series. The Tigers lone win came in 2013 in Athens when then No. 25 Missouri upset No. 7 Georgia 41-26. Last year, top-ranked Georgia rallied for a 26-22 win in Columbia.

In the 2022 contest, Georgia faced a pair of 13-point deficits in the first half, and the Bulldogs trailed by 10 in the fourth quarter following a 56-yard field goal by Tiger kicker Harrison Mevis. The Bulldogs took their first lead with 4:03 left, going up 26-22 on a one-yard plunge by Daijun Edwards that capped a seven-play, 68-yard drive.

About Missouri

Head Coach Eli Drinkwitz has the Tigers off to their best start since 2013 when they advanced to the SEC Championship Game. The Tigers have their best ranking in the national polls since 2014, checking in at No. 14 this week in the AP and the Coaches polls. Missouri is averaging 33.9 points per game while allowing 23.3 ppg. Missouri is 34-for-35 in scoring in the Red Zone including 24 TDs. Graduate RB Cody Schrader (140 att., 807 yards, 9 TDs) is averaging 100.9 yards per game while junior QB Brady Cook is completing 69.8 percent of his passes, going 169-for-242 for 2,259 yards, 15 TDs and 3 INTs. The defense has 24 sacks including 4.5 by graduate Darius Robinson and four by junior Johnny Walker.

This Is Our House

Georgia is 42-4 at home in the Kirby Smart era, including 11-1 against ranked opponents. In fact, the Bulldogs have won their last 11 games in Athens versus ranked opponents. This year, Georgia crushed No. 20 Kentucky 51-13 on Dooley Field.

Balance Signals Success

The Bulldogs are one of only three teams in the country who are ranked in the top seven in both Scoring Offense and Scoring Defense. Georgia is tied for seventh in Scoring Offense at 40.5 points per game. The Bulldogs rank seventh nationally in Scoring Defense at 14.8 ppg. The other two teams are Michigan (8-0) and SMU (6-2).

One of the keys to Georgia's success is its third down defense. The Bulldogs lead the country with opponents converting just 25 percent of the time. In the past four SEC games, Georgia opponents are a combined 10-for-43 on third downs (23 percent). The Bulldogs are third nationally in converting third downs (56 percent).

Bulldogs Again Among The Leaders In Scoring Defense

Since the arrival of Kirby Smart in 2016, the Bulldogs have featured talented defenses and twice led the nation in Scoring Defense. This season, Georgia is ranked seventh nationally allowing 14.8 points/game. The Bulldogs return 12 players who have starting experience from a group that ranked fifth nationally in 2022 allowing opponents only 14.3 points per contest.

A Look At The Specialists

Australian punter Brett Thorson, who earned All-SEC Freshman honors in 2022, has a 42.6 average on 20 punts this year, including 12 that resulted in fair catches. Most recently, Thorson pinned the Gators on their own 18, 9 and 6 yard line during the Bulldogs' rout. He was named to the Ray Guy Award's Ray's 8 following his performance versus UT Martin. Georgia did not punt at Vanderbilt for the first time since the 2022 Kent State game.

Did You Know? Georgia is the only team in the FBS that has not allowed a punt return this season. The Bulldogs are tied for fifth nationally in Punt Return Yards at 0.0 (four schools have allowed negative punt return yards).

* Freshman Peyton Woodring has attempted all field goals and PATs this season. He has a team-high 82 points going 14-for-17 on field goals and 40-for-40 on PATs.

* Woodring has earned SEC Freshman of the Week following wins over AU, #20 UK and VU. He had a season high 15 points in the win over the Wildcats and was named one of the Lou Groza Award's Stars of the Week.

* Connected on both his field goals, including a 38 yarder, and three PATs in the win at Auburn.

* Tallied three field goals, including a career-long 44 yarder, and was 4-for-4 on PATs during a windy victory at Vanderbilt.

* First true freshman Bulldog PK to start a season opener since Marshall Morgan in 2012.

Did You Know? Woodring's 12 points was the most by a Georgia true freshman kicker in a season opener since Kevin Butler set a school-record with 14 points in a 44-0 rout of Tennessee in Athens to open the 1981 season.

* Senior William Mote handles the snapping duties on special teams.

* Entering 2023, junior Jared Zirkel was 1-for-1 in career field goals (21-yarder at USC last year) and had nine career kickoffs. This year, Zirkel has handled all 61 kickoffs with 35 touchbacks and two going out of bounds.

Block That Punt...Block That Kick

Currently, there are four Bulldogs who have blocked a kick/punt in their Georgia career.

* True freshman DB Joemel Aguerro blocked a Florida punt that resulted in a safety this season.

* In 2022, DL Nazir Stackhouse blocked a field goal that was returned 96 yards for a touchdown by teammate Chris Smith in the opening quarter of the SEC Championship Game versus No. 14 LSU.

* OLB Jalon Walker blocked a punt that resulted in a safety versus Kent State last year.

* S Dan Jackson blocked a punt against No. 8 Arkansas in 2021.

Polling Place

At 8-0, the Bulldogs are in the No. 1 spot in the Associated Press Top 25. In fact, the Bulldogs have the longest active run of top-10 rankings now with 43.

* Georgia was the No. 1 ranked team in the 2023 AP preseason Top 25. The Bulldogs became the first team besides Alabama or Clemson to be preseason ranked No. 1 since Ohio State in 2015. The only other time the Bulldogs have been preseason ranked No. 1 in the AP poll came in 2008.

* The Bulldogs' 20-week streak of No. 1 ranked appearances is third best all-time in NCAA history.

* Georgia started the 2021 season ranked No. 5 and went on to win its first national title since 1980. The Bulldogs followed up with a perfect season in 2022 after starting in the No. 3 spot in the preseason poll.

* Since the AP preseason poll started in 1950, there have been 11 teams that started No. 1 that also finished No. 1. However, only two of those have occurred since 2000: Southern California (2004) and Alabama (2017). And in case you haven't heard, no team has won three straight national titles during the AP poll era (dating to 1936). Minnesota's 1934 and 1935 squads went 8-0 and were named the best team in the nation by eight different organizations. Then, the 1936 club went 7-1 and was crowned the first official AP champion plus seven other organizations declared them national champions too.

* Overall, Georgia has been ranked in the AP top 25 for 108 consecutive weeks and that ranks third among active streaks.

* UGA remains No. 1 in the US LBM Coaches Poll and also the FWAA Super 16 Poll where it began 2023.

BULLDOG FAMILY

Coach Smart credits retention is the key to sustaining success. He has pointed out that 26 UGA grads are a part of his 2023 staff. Also, every full-time coach on the 2023 staff was on last year's national championship staff.

He added that this is in part to having a supportive administration and a great culture of people wanting to be a part of the program.

Academic & Community Service Highlights In The Smart Era

* The University of Georgia checked in at No. 16 in U.S. News & World Report's 2023 ranking of the best public universities in the nation, marking the seventh consecutive year that UGA has placed in the top 20. Georgia is one of only two SEC institutions to rank among the top 20.

* In 2022, two-time All-America tight end Brock Bowers was named an Academic All-American.

* Overall, Georgia has had 199 players make the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the Kirby Smart era including a high of 35 on the 2021 national championship team.

* Under Smart, 13 Bulldogs have been named National Football Foundation (NFF) Hampshire Society Members. The society is comprised of football players from all divisions who maintained a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or better throughout their career, were starters or significant contributors and have completed their final year of playing eligibility. The most recent members are Ladd McConkey, Jack Podlesny and Payne Walker in 2023.

* McConkey became the 15th Bulldog since 1966 to be named a Campbell Trophy finalist and NFF National Scholar-Athlete Award winner. He will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship and will be honored at a banquet in Las Vegas on Dec. 5. Georgia leads the SEC and is tied for sixth nationally with its 15 honorees.

* In the area community service, McConkey recently became the 23rd Bulldog since 1992 to earn a spot on the AFCA Good Works Team, which honors 22 men annually. Since 2016, the Bulldogs have had seven, including Kearis Jackson in 2022, and Georgia's 23 recipients leads the nation.

* A large number of the 2023 squad participated in the Chick-fil-A Dawg Bowl in October, which was a fundraiser led by former Bulldog head coach Mark Richt to raise money and awareness for Parkinson's and Crohn's diseases. The event raised more than $750,000.

* Former Bulldog defensive lineman Travon Walker, who was the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2022 (Jacksonville) recently donated $44,000 to the UGA Athletic Association with the money earmarked for athletic training. It was a part of a series of donations made by his foundation.

* Former All-American and NFL linebacker Jarvis Jones, who currently serves as UGA football's Player Connection Coordinator, is one of three former Bulldog greats selected to the 2023 Athletic Association's Circle of Honor Class. It is the highest honor a Bulldog can receive.

* NFL veteran offensive lineman Fernando Velasco (UGA 2003-07), who served as an Assistant Director of Player Development for UGA from 2017-19, was named to UGA's 40 Under 40 Class of 2023. Currently, he is Director of Player Development for the Atlanta Falcons.

* In September of 2020, it was announced that Kirby and Mary Beth Smart contributed $1 million to UGA to go towards the Athletic Association's new social justice program, scholarships for senior athletes whose seasons were affected by the pandemic and the expansion of the football program.

Development Leads Bulldogs To NFL Career

• Georgia's 25 players drafted in the NFL the past two seasons is the most by a single school in consecutive drafts in the modern era (since 1967).

• Georgia had a record 15 players selected in the 2022 draft including five in the first round starting with the No. 1 overall pick, Travon Walker, DL (Jacksonville).

• Ten Bulldogs were selected in the 2023 NFL draft with three in the first round.

• In the Kirby Smart era, 55 Bulldogs have been selected in the NFL Draft.

We're No. 1 When We're Not No. 3

Georgia began the 2023 campaign where it ended the past two seasons -- ranked No. 1. The Bulldogs have been ranked No. 1 by the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Poll since Oct. 9, 2022.

However in the first CFP rankings last year (Nov. 1), Georgia came in at No. 3 when it played host to CFP No. 1 Tennessee. The Bulldogs beat the Vols 27-13 and moved to the top spot in the CFP rankings the rest of the season.

During the 2021 campaign, the Bulldogs were No. 1 in the first five CFP rankings before finishing at No. 3 in the final following the SEC Championship Game. The Bulldogs would go on to beat No. 2 Michigan and No. 1 Alabama for its first CFP title.

The only other time Georgia began a season ranked No. 1 was in 2008. The Bulldogs finished 10-3 that year and ranked No. 13 in the AP and No. 10 by the coaches.

Mascot: Uga XI, a.k.a. "Boom"

Following the retirement of Uga X, 10-month-old puppy "Boom" assumed the vaunted role of Georgia's on-field mascot during the annual "G Day" spring game last April. During a pre-game ceremony, UGA president Jere W. Morehead joined J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks and his son, Davis, in the collaring of Boom. Then, Boom made a successful debut in the 2023 opener. Boom is 8-0 after the Bulldogs thrashed the Gators 43-20 in Jacksonville, Fla., on Oct. 28.

Boom is the 11th solid white English Bulldog to serve as Georgia's mascot since the line began in 1956 courtesy of the Seiler family of Savannah, Ga. Uga X, a.k.a. "Que" served from 2015-22 and posted a record of 91-18, retiring as the winningest mascot in program history.

The patriarch of the Seiler family, Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler, passed away at his home in Savannah at the age of 90 on Aug. 28. The Bulldogs honored Seiler with a moment of silence and a tribute video before the season opener against UT Martin.

No. 1 Georgia 48, UT Martin 7

Sept. 2, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Two-time defending national champion Georgia opened its 2023 season by rolling past UT Martin, 48-7, in front of a sold-out crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and an SEC+ television audience.

Georgia finished with 559 yards of offense while the defense repeatedly stuffed Martin, holding it to 260 total yards. Making his first start, quarterback Carson Beck completed 21 of 31 passes for 294 yards and threw a 54-yard touchdown. He also ran for a four-yard TD late in the second quarter. Beck's top target was tight end Brock Bowers, who finished with five catches for 77 yards and scored on a three-yard run.

The Bulldogs' first points came on Bowers' run, a jet sweep to the right side. Kicker Peyton Woodring made his Bulldog debut on the point-after attempt, putting Georgia up 7-0 with 3:40 remaining in the first quarter.

Georgia's next points didn't come until the 4:29 mark of the second quarter when Beck ran the ball in from the 4. Later in the quarter, Woodring connected on a 23-yard field goal for a 17-0 lead at the half.

Midway through the third quarter, Beck threw a short pass to redshirt sophomore receiver Mekhi Mews who turned it into a 54-yard touchdown and a 24-0 lead with 8:29 left in the quarter.

Georgia's next touchdown was set up by a 47-yard completion to redshirt freshman wideout C.J. Smith up the left side and a 25-yarder to Mews. Freshman running back Roderick Robinson finished the drive with a two-yard touchdown for a 31-0 lead with 5:35 left in the third.

Backup quarterback Brock Vandagriff provided some fourth-quarter fireworks when he connected with junior wideout Rara Thomas for a 56-yard gain. On the next play, Vandagriff found tight end Oscar Delp for a 21-yard touchdown that made it 38-0 with 11:36 remaining.

After Woodring made it 41-7 Bulldogs with a 33-yard field goal with 2:09 to play, Georgia's final points came from the defense when freshman STAR Byron Jones intercepted a pass and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown with 1:59 remaining.

The win was the Bulldogs' 18th in a row overall, 19th in a row on Dooley Field, and Georgia tied the school record for regular-season wins in a row with its 28th, matching the great run of the 1981-83 teams.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"You talk about decision-making, (quarterback Carson Beck) did exactly what he did all camp. He didn't put us in bad situations, he made good decisions, he didn't throw it to the other team, he didn't fumble it. He did some really good things. We have to execute better around him and we have to have some guys make some plays and make some guys miss. That's what we missed early, but when we got on rhythm and starting doing our offense, we did some pretty good things."

Mekhi Mews had a game-high 125 all-purpose yards against UT Martin, including 54 on a TD reception in the third quarter.

No. 1 Georgia 45, Ball State 3

Sept. 9, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Six different players scored touchdowns, the defense intercepted three passes and Mekhi Mews returned a punt 69 yards for a score in top-ranked Georgia's 45-3 win over Ball State, in front of a Sanford Stadium sell-out crowd of 92,746 and a SEC Network television audience.

After a scoreless opening quarter, the Bulldogs put 31 on the scoreboard in the second to blow open the game. On the third play of the second period, Mews caught a low, line-drive punt, scooted to his right and went untouched on a 69-yard return for a touchdown.

Georgia's defense made the next big play in the game when safety Malaki Starks intercepted a deep ball up the left side. The Bulldog offense took full advantage of the turnover, scoring on a 7-yard pass from Beck to Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint on third-and-goal.

Less than a minute later, linebacker Chaz Chambliss snagged a deflected pass and pulled in his first career interception. Two plays later, wideout Dillon Bell, lined up in the backfield, took a handoff, cut to the outside and sprinted into the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown and a 21-0 lead.

After the defense got another quick stop, the offense worked its way down the field before eventually settling for a 35-yard Peyton Woodring field goal, making it 24-0 with 1:49 on the clock.

Just eight seconds later, STAR Tykee Smith intercepted a pass broken up by Daylen Everette. The Bulldogs turned the takeaway into another touchdown when running back Kendall Milton went over the top from the 1, pushing Georgia ahead 31-0 with 37 seconds left until halftime.

The Bulldogs' fifth touchdown of the day was a 27-yard strike into the back right corner of the end zone from Beck to running back Cash Jones.

Georgia's defense got a stop on fourth-and-1 inside UGA territory late in the third quarter. On the first play of the ensuing drive, running back Roderick Robinson went right for 14 yards. That was followed by a 41-yard completion from Beck to tight end Oscar Delp. On first down on the 12, Robinson scooted in for an easy score with 46 seconds left in the third.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"You're always looking for something, Defense turns to offense. It's like basketball, when you play good defense, you get transition offense. When you play good defense and special teams, you can transition that to offense. We started getting momentum there as the defense got stops and then eventually we got them into a long-yardage situation and we were able to return the punt (for a touchdown). That gave the crowd some juice and our players some juice."

Tykee Smith collected Georgia's third interception late in the first half, leading to the Bulldogs' fourth TD of the second quarter.

No. 1 Georgia 24, South Carolina 14

Sept. 16, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – The top-ranked Georgia football team had to work for its first SEC win of the season, rallying from 14-3 down at halftime to defeat South Carolina, 24-14, in front of a Sanford Stadium capacity crowd of 92,746 and a CBS national television audience.

The Bulldogs scored three rushing touchdowns in the second half, and its defense ramped up its pressure on Gamecocks quarterback Spencer Rattler to shift the momentum of the game. Georgia came up with two interceptions in the fourth quarter to help seal the program's 20th win in a row.

Quarterback Carson Beck was 13 of 18 for 98 yards in the first half, and finished the game 27 of 35 for 269 yards. The Bulldogs out-gained the Gamecocks 458-309, including a 189-53 advantage on the ground. Running back Daijun Edwards, in his first action of the season due to injury, led the way with 118 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries.

The Bulldogs trailed for the first time this season after Rattler threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Antwane Wells for a 7-0 lead with 9:56 left in the first quarter. Georgia was able to cut into the lead on its first drive, which ended with a 31-yard Peyton Woodring field goal with 2:02 remaining in the period.

South Carolina seized the momentum right before the half with an 80-yard touchdown drive capped by a two-yard Dakereon Joyner run with 1:00 on the clock.

Georgia received the kickoff to start the second half and went right to work offensively. Powered by a 36-yard completion from Beck to wideout Rara Thomas and a 15-yard run from Kendall Milton, and then capped by a seven-yard touchdown run by Edwards, Georgia cut the South Carolina lead to 14-10 with 12:20 remaining in the third. The offense kept rolling on its second possession of the quarter, marching 49 yards for a 17-14 lead on wideout Dillon Bell's three-yard touchdown run.

Running back Cash Jones closed out Georgia's next drive with a 13-yard run up the right side for the score, giving the Bulldogs a 24-14 lead with 9:10 remaining. Safeties Dan Jackson and Tykee Smith intercepted Rattler passes in the final five minutes to seal the victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"The message at halftime was: win one moment at a time, win one moment at a time. If you can win one moment at a time, we can get ourselves back in this thing. ... I told them at halftime, 'Look guys, it's going to happen very simply: one moment at a time.' And they believed it. They kept saying 'one moment, one moment, one moment.' We gained so much momentum in the second half thanks to our fans and thanks to our players making some plays."

Running back Daijun Edwards ran for 118 yards and a touchdown in his first game of the season.

The last time Georgia failed to score a TD in the first half was last year's Missouri road game when it fell behind 16-6 and eventually rallied for a 26-22 win. The last time Georgia score only three points in the first half was at the 2019 SEC Championship game when it trailed LSU 17-3 and lost 37-10. Today, Georgia came back to win 24-14.
- Captains, Coin Toss and For Starters: Senior Tramel Walthour (DL) along with juniors Carson Beck (QB), Kamari Lassiter (DB) and Sedrick Van Pran (C) served as the game captains. Georgia won the toss and elected to defer the football until the 2nd half. There were two first-time starters in junior David Daniel-Sisavanh (S) and senior Daijun Edwards (TB). "It's an honor (to win for the 85th time in 100 games as head coach). It takes a great organization, and we have one. We have an incredible academic setup. We have a wonderful university that people want to attend. We have great leadership in our president and athletic director. It's easy to be successful when you have the setup that we have."

No. 1 GEORGIA 27, AUBURN 20

Sept. 30, 2023 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. – In its first road contest of the season, the top-ranked Georgia football team came from behind to defeat Auburn, 27-20, Saturday afternoon before 88,043 spectators at Jordan-Hare Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Quarterback Carson Beck finished 23-for-33 for 313 yards and one touchdown. Tight end Brock Bowers led all receivers with eight catches for a career-high 157 yards, including a 40-yarder for the game-winning score, while running back Daijun Edwards rushed 19 times for a team-high 76 yards and two touchdowns. Linebacker Smael Mondon, Jr. tied his career high with 11 tackles, including seven solo stops and two tackles for loss.

The Tigers struck first with a 27-yard field goal that was set up by quarterback Payton Thorne's 61-yard run to the Georgia 30. Auburn then converted a Beck interception into points, taking a 10-0 lead on Jarquez Hunter's 5-yard touchdown run.

Georgia answered back on the ensuing drive, capping an 11-play drive with a 2-yard Edwards run for a touchdown. On their next drive, the Bulldogs drove into red zone before kicker Peyton Woodring connected from 37 yards out to tie the game at 10 with 5:57 to go before halftime.

Auburn produced its second turnover of the game seconds into the third quarter, forcing a by tight end Oscar Delp. The Tigers started at the UGA 32-yard line and scored soon after on a 9-yard run by backup QB Robby Ashford, putting Auburn up 17-10.

Later in the third, after a 71-yard Auburn punt was downed at the 2, the Bulldogs marched 98 yards for a touchdown. Edwards ran for 16 yards to give Georgia some breathing room, and then scored on a 13-yard run to make it 17-17 with 1:03 left in the quarter.

After completions of 37 and 28 yards to Bowers moved the ball into Auburn territory, Woodring gave Georgia its first lead, 20-17, on a 38-yard field goal with 10:57 left in the game. Auburn later drew even on a 42-yard kick by Alex McPherson with 6:21 remaining.

Georgia took the lead for good, 27-20, when Beck hit Bowers for a 40-yard touchdown pass with 2:52 left in the game.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"They are resilient as hell and competed. The leadership of this team has shown twice. You don't know how many times you are going to be able to do that when you turn the ball over and give people extra possessions. You just can't do that. Good football teams don't do that, and good football teams don't let people run the ball on them for 200 yards. That is one of the things we knew they would do well. I thought they really ran the ball well, and they used the quarterback and rushed the ball on us. We can't do that. We have to run the ball better, too. But, proud of the way the guys fought."

Tight end Brock Bowers caught eight passes for a career-high 157 yards, including a 40-yarder for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

No. 1 GEORGIA 51, No. 20 KENTUCKY 13

Oct. 7, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Carson Beck threw for a career-high 389 yards and four touchdowns, the Georgia defense shut down what had been a prolific rushing attack, and the top-ranked Bulldogs won a battle of unbeaten, 51-13, against No. 20 Kentucky on Saturday night in front of a sellout crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on ESPN.

With the victory, Georgia (6-0, 3-0 SEC) extended its overall winning streak to 23 games. In addition, it was the Bulldogs' 33rd straight regular-season win, its 22nd straight SEC regular-season win, and it was the team's 23rd win in a row on Dooley Field.

Kentucky (5-1, 2-1) came in fresh off a 33-14 rout of Florida last week in which the Wildcats ran for 329 yards. But the Bulldogs held the Wildcats to 55 yards on the ground and 183 yards of total offense.

Georgia's offense, meanwhile, scored on every possession in the first half, including three straight touchdowns to start the game. The Bulldogs finished with 608 yards for the game, with Beck completing 28 of 35 passes.

Tight end Brock Bowers had seven receptions for 132 yards — his third straight 100-yard game — and a touchdown. Running back Daijun Edwards was productive as a runner and receiver, combining for 105 yards.

On Georgia's first drive, Beck completed all four of his passes, starting with a 7-yard screen to Edwards on first down and ending with a 40-yard completion to wideout Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint to make it 7-0 with 11:26 to play in the quarter.

After the defense forced the first of eight Kentucky punts, Beck kept hitting his receivers, including a 25-yarder to Bowers. Later, Beck hit Rara Thomas in the front left corner of the end zone for a 15-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead with 4:25 remaining in the first.

After another Georgia stop, the Bulldogs got the ball at their 5. A 12-play, 95-yard drive followed, ending with a short touchdown pass to tight end Oscar Delp to make it 21-0. Kentucky scored on its next drive, but Georgia didn't let the Wildcats make it a game. A 36-yard Peyton Woodring field goal made it 24-7 Bulldogs, and soon after, Kendall Milton's 5-yard touchdown run made it 31-7 with 61 seconds left in the half.

Kentucky tried to get aggressive in the final minute, but it backfired. Georgia's defense forced a quick punt and Woodring drilled a 42-yard field goal as the half expired, sending UGA to the locker room up 34-7.

In the second half, Georgia got a 32-yard field goal from Woodring, a 21-yard touchdown catch from Bowers and a 7-yard touchdown catch from Andrew Paul.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It was an electric crowd and it energized our players. Our players started fast, finally, and that was great to get a start-fast game. We challenged them all week to have a connected physicality. We really wanted to be connected because we felt like we could be more physical if we were together. We talked all week about mass and acceleration equal force. We wanted to have a lot of mass and a lot of acceleration."

Wide receiver Rara Thomas had five catches for 63 yards, including this 15-yarder for a touchdown.

No. 1 GEORGIA 37, VANDERBILT 20

Oct. 14, 2023 • FirstBank Stadium • Nashville, Tenn.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The top-ranked Georgia football team got three field goals from kicker Peyton Woodring and ran for 281 yards in the Bulldogs' 37-20 win over Vanderbilt on Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 28,500 at FirstBank Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Carson Beck completed 29 of 39 passes for 261 yards and a touchdown, while Daijun Edwards ran for a career-high 146 yards and helped seal the win with a 1-yard score with 3:13 left in the game.

Vanderbilt struck first, scoring on a 49-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Ken Seals to wideout London Humphreys with 12:07 left in the first.

Georgia escaped trouble on its next drive when center Sedrick Van Pran picked up a botched handoff on third-and-1 and ran for 6 yards and a first down. Beck later scored on a 1-yard plunge to make it 7-7.

Georgia's defense forced a Vandy punt on the ensuing drive, and the Bulldog offense went 77 yards for a touchdown and the lead. Beck connected with wideout Ladd McConkey on completions of 31 and 13 yards to move the ball into Vandy territory, and Milton later finished off the drive with a 3-yard run to make it 14-7.

The Bulldogs added to their lead late in the second quarter with Woodring's 31-yard field, making it 17-7 with 3:49 left in the half. Woodring later added a career-long 44-yarder and a 30-yarder.

In the final minute of the first half, after a Tykee Smith interception, Georgia went after more points. Two long completions moved the ball to the 5 with 19 seconds left. Two plays later, Beck and Dominic Lovett connected on a 4-yard touchdown, pushing the Bulldog lead to 24-7.

Vandy cut the Bulldog lead to 27-14 on the first play of the fourth quarter, scoring on a 3-yard pass from Seals to receiver Richie Hoskins. Woodring's 30-yarder made it 30-14 with 9:05 left in the game.

The Commodores' CJ Taylor intercepted Beck with 6:17 to go in the game and returned the ball to the Bulldog 1. On the next play, Sedrick Alexander scored to cut Georgia's lead to 30-20.

Edwards ran the ball all five plays, including a 62-yarder down to the 6-yard line, on Georgia's final scoring drive.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Once again, we come to Nashville and it feels like a home game. We had a lot of UGA red in the stands. When we came out for warmups, it was not as crowded, and then when we came out for the main part of the game, there was a sea of red there as we came across the field — and a lot of red on their side — so I was really appreciative of our fans making it like a home game. And I'm really proud of our players being really resilient and fighting through some turnovers, some adversity, some sloppy play, some injuries. But at the end of the day, they responded and they got up to play on the road in the SEC, so I'm proud of them for that."

Linebacker Smael Mondon brings down Vandy quarterback Ken Seals during the Bulldogs' 37-20 win. Mondon led UGA with 6 stops.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I think this team's improving and getting better. We're still not where we need to be. I was certainly proud of the competitors that went out and fought today for our university, and continue to do that. I was proud of our fans; they supported us even though we didn't start the way we wanted to. But we responded and played well. We were able to control the line of scrimmage, which ultimately is the difference in this conference. If you can win the line of scrimmage, you've got a chance."

Ladd McConkey led Georgia's receivers with six receptions for 135 yards, including a 41-yard touchdown.
